Dear parents and carers

Music Tuition for Key Stage 2 – Summer Term

We have teamed up with TF Music, a local music school in Bury St Edmunds, to bring some 1:1 music tuition and after school clubs to Barrow School for our Key Stage 2 children. TFM are a group of young tutors who focus on teaching using contemporary music and recent hits. That said, they offer high quality tuition and the opportunity for their musicians to work through the UK grade system.

The following options for this tuition will be available after Easter.

Lesson/Group	Cost	Day
1:1 guitar lessons	£19 per half hour	Wednesdays in school (pm)
1:1 piano lessons	£19 per half hour	Wednesdays in school (pm)
Voice ensemble (small singing group class)	£9 per session – 45 mins	Wednesdays after school – 3.15pm to 4pm
Jam Club – group class for students who can already play an instrument	£9 per session – 45 mins	TBC – after school if enough musicians to go ahead

All lessons and club fees are payable a half term in advance. The first half term will be for 5 weeks. There are a limited number of places available on the days mentioned above, so if you have a firm interest in signing your child up, please complete the initial expression of interest form on ParentMail by Tuesday, 19th April. A link will then be sent next week for you to sign up directly with the music school in time for the first sessions to take place in school on Wednesday, 27th April. If there is lots of initial interest, however, it may be possible to add a second afternoon to the program above.

We are really excited to be working in partnership with the TFM team and hope that this will be a popular enhancement to our music curriculum provision.

Kind regards
